Gina Sabbatini-Bowman

Gina Sabbatini-Bowman, 43, owns Gina's in downtown Ocean Springs. Her shop specializes in antiques, local art and specialty gift items. After teaching for 12 years and having a career in pharmaceutical sales for 6 years, she wanted to do something different. Sabbatini-Bowman enjoyed shopping for antiques with her mother and said she always wanted to own her own business. "I thought it was natural to open up a shop. I work more hours than I did before, but it doesn't feel like it because I love it," she said. Her husband, James, and 9-year-old daughter, Emily, help make the business a family affair. "My husband is a big help and my daughter will run the cash register sometimes," she said. Sabbatini-Bowman grew up in Biloxi and moved to Ocean Springs 10 years ago. When not running her shop, Sabbatini-Bowman said she enjoys playing tennis with her family.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bowen, who hold an affectionate place in the hearts of their numerous nieces and nephews, invited them to their home for a family reunion and a dinner party on Christmas Monday. Although all were not able to attend, those who did enjoy the day together with "Uncle George" and "Aunt Dollie" were: Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Howell, of Howison; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Weeks, of Perkinston; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Colmer, Gulfport; Leon Colmer, Ponchatoula, Hon. and Mrs. Bill Colmer, Pascagoula;; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Colmer, Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzner, Mobile; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Coulson, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fitzner and Miss Mary Fitzner, Moss Point, and Mrs. S. H. Reeves, Jackson.

The younger children of the above families were not included in the spread at the Bowen home, but they had a dinner all their own at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Colmer in Pascagoula, and came up in the afternoon to exchange greetings with Mr. and Mrs. Bowen and the others.

The day will long be remembered by their brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews as one of the most delightful occasions they have enjoyed in many a Christmas season.

Enjoys Picnic
At Pascagoula Beach

A happy family party, including the nieces and nephews of Mrs. George W. Bowen, who spent last week in her home and several others, enjoyed a picnic on the beach Wednesday afternoon.

Prior to going down to the beach, the party, including Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Walton, Misses Gloria and Barbara and Bob Walton, Mrs. G. H. Reeves, Mrs. Leroy Weeks, Miss Elizabeth Weeks, Colmer and Leroy Weeks, Mrs. P. N. Howell, Miss Virginia and Albert Howell, Mrs. Bill Colmer, Miss Ina Thompson, Mr. Jesse W. Thompson, Mr. Leon Colmer, Mrs. Henry Gautier, Miss Wilma Proffitt of Lexington, Ky., and Miss Lenora Dempsy of Piedmont, Ala., assembled at the lake front home of Mr. and Mrs. Hermes Gautier where they viewed several moving pictures including family pictures and local scenes. Mrs. Gautier's hospitality included a visit to the large grape arbor in the rear of the home. On the beach a picnic lunch was enjoyed.

CELEBRATE THE
MARRIED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen Congratulated on Celebrating Their Fifty-Fourth Anniversary.

Fifty-four years is a long period of time in this ever changing period of the world's history, but a worthy and beloved couple of this city have faced the successes and failures of life together for that many years, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bowen having on last Sunday, March 1, reached the fifty-fourth milestone of their married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen had no formal celebration, but during the day many friends and relatives called in to pay their respects and wish these dear old folks many more anniversaries, leaving tokens of love and esteem in the shape of flowers, fruits and presents. In addition they received many letters, cards and telegrams and telephone messages of congratulation, from relatives and friends who were unable to be present, one of the telegrams being received from Congressman W. M. Colmer, which is highly prized.

That night at supper Mr. and Mrs. Bowen had as guests the following relatives and friends: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Weeks of Perkinston; Mrs. Posey Howell, Virginia and Albert Howell of Howison; Mrs. W. M. Colmer of Pascagoula, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fitzner and Miss Mary Fitzner of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen were married on March 1, 1882, in the Zion Methodist church at Escatawpa, the officiating minister being Rev. Charles Calhoun. Mrs. Bowen was before her marriage, Miss Mena Meyers. After they were married they lived in Escatawpa ten years, then moved to Moss Point where they have lived since.

The Advertiser takes pleasure in congratulating these fine old folks, and wishing for them many more anniversaries, with the continued good health which they now enjoy.

In Congress last week, there were 86 senators and 373 representatives who voted for the war resolution, while only 6 senators and 50 representatives (and the congresswoman) voted against it. These 459 national lawmakers were loud in their talk and votes for defense of the honor and rights of the great American Republic, but, so far, it appears that only one member of Congress has actually offered his personal fighting services to the government. Saturday, a United States Senator called on the Secretary of War and tendered his services to the department. He asked permission to raise a regiment in his home state. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

Confederate Mothers.

Aberdeen, Miss., April 7.—A few days ago there appeared an article in The Commercial Appeal asking if there were any Confederate mothers living. Aberdeen has a Confederate mother in the person of Mrs. Mary K. Bowen, whose son, George Bowen joined the Confederate Army when he was 16 years old. Mrs. Bowen is living at present with her daughter in Knoxville, Tenn.—Aberdeen Examiner.

Here's another one. Mrs. Orleans Sharp, mother of our townsman, Mr. G. H. Sharp, and grandmother of Dr. W. E. Sharp, city health officer, is still living in Amite county, within three miles of the place on which she was born. She will be 90 years of age next month and is hale and hearty for one of her age. She has seven sons living, two of whom, G. H. Sharp of this city and C. Ed. Sharp of New Orleans, are Confederate veterans; and three daughters. She has numerous grand children, several great grand children and one great great grand child. Let's hear from some other county.

MISS MARY ANN BOWEN of Pascagoula, winner of a state-wide poster contest held by the Alabama Division of the Women's Field Army. Miss Bowen, who is in her freshman year at the Sacred Heart Academy, at Cullman, Ala., used as her slogan, "We Have the Power to Fight Cancer." She was awarded the Bond given as a prize, at a recital at the school. In announcing the award, Mrs. Ray Meade, state commander of the division, said her slogan was exactly in line with the educational work of this organization. Miss Bowen also carried off the highest honors in the freshman class. She has arranged to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Bowen in Pascagoula.
